All tuition payments are due by the 7th of each month. Other payment arrangements can be made if needed. Tuition and registration fees are adjusted/prorated for students starting lessons in the middle of the year.

Tuition payment remains the same each period, regardless of the number of lessons received.

Tuition is based on enrollment, not attendance. It also covers the cost of:

- Music and supplies
- Studio events, including recitals, Piano Parties, and more
- Time spent in preparation (lesson planning, curriculum development, etc.)
- Student lending library
- Studio Technology (studio iPads, apps, recording equipment, etc.)
- Student incentives, prizes and awards
- Continuing education and teacher training, including professional journals & publications, and attendance of music education conferences and seminars.
- Professional organization memberships (Music Teachers National Association, Texas Music Teachers Association, Texas Music Educators Association, and the Corpus Christi Music Teachers Association). These memberships provide students with additional opportunities for festivals, competitions, and performance events.
- Other studio expenses & maintenance (WIFI, photocopies, instrument maintenance, repairs, etc.)
- Business licenses, insurance and taxes.

All forms of payment are accepted. Checks should be made payable to Play Out Loud Music Studio.

Once paid, tuition is non-refundable. This agreement expires on July 31, 2021.
